Toronto Resident Wins Luxury Car at Charity Event

February 29, 2008 (Richmond Hill) – Winning a luxury vehicle is as easy as saying thank you, as proven by the 2008 Dragon Ball Grand Raffle winner.

Will Card, Corey Cahill and Kaelem Cahill of Toronto could hardly believe their luck when they found out that they owned the winning raffle ticket (No. 05206) for the Grand Prize – a brand new Lexus IS 250 RWD luxury sport sedan, donated by Lexus. They were given a raffle ticket as a holiday gift by Yee Hong supporters, Terry and Helena O'Connor.

The Grand Raffle is part of the annual black tie gala, Dragon Ball, that raises funds for Yee Hong Centre for Geriatric Care. The 19th edition was held at the Metro Toronto Convention Centre on February 9th, attracting 1,200 patrons.

“Every year we raise $1Million from this gala,” said Pauline Tong, President of Yee Hong Community Wellness Foundation. “The fantastic result is a tribute to the generous support from the community, corporate sponsors, donors, and, of course, tens of thousands of raffle purchasers.”

This is the second year Lexus has participated in the Dragon Ball. Yves Gionet, Director of Lexus in Canada and Norio Naka, Dealer Principal of Lexus of Richmond Hill and Don Valley North Lexus congratulated Mr. Card and Mr. Cahill and expressed their wish to have further co-operation with Yee Hong in the future. They are eager to participate in more charitable work in the Chinese community.
